SUBJECT: (Briefly state your question or concern and the solution you are requesting. Continue on back, if necessary. Your failure to be specific may result in no action being taken. If necessary, you will be interviewed in order to successfully respond to your request.)

With this cop-out I would like to protest the yet-even-more-restrictive policy about Maryland Unit inmates not being able to bring books and newspapers back to MD Unit from the lower compound's library on Wednesday mornings, instituted this past week. I work at UNICOR and am, therefore, unable to take advantage of any of the lower compound educational building's amenities (available to sentenced inmates six days a week) including access to a wider selection of library books, DVD's, encyclopedias, unabridged dictionaries, newspapers, magazines, etc. (wider than MD Unit's offerings) and photocopying, and have been unable to take advantage of same since the so-called "separation" from sentenced inmates on 3/3/08--3½ years ago! Consequently, I have dependent on other (non-UNICOR) MD Unit inmates to bring up certain newspapers which, otherwise, I'd never see. Specifically, THE WALL STREET JOURNAL, and the Sunday NEW YORK TIMES.

I can't speak for the stupidity of other MD Unit inmates "passing notes" and/or exchanging contraband with sentenced inmates via these exchanges;

the BOP has disciplinary measures in place to deal with that. What I can speak to is the ever-deteriorating conditions of confinement that MD Unit inmates have endured for years without oversight from the courts. That will quickly change at my November 28th §4248 hearing in Judge Boyle's courtroom. In the meantime, please arrange for immediate subscriptions to MD Unit's own editions of THE WAL STREET JOURNAL, and the SUNDAY NEW YORK TIMES (not listed here are newspapers, magazines, etc. that other MD Unit detainees may want to have now that we've been cut off from lower compound facilities).

Please respond, in writing, to this request.

Thank you.
